

Certified Community Director

Booking and refund policy

1. Certified Community Director refers to the seven-unit course found here.
2. Certified Community Director does not include other courses available on the Institute of Community Directors' learning management system.
3. Certified Community Director must be paid in full before access to the course will be granted.
4. There is no time limit to access of this course.
5. Refunds are not available.
6. Bundle prices are only available at the initial point of purchase. Discounts on the bundle price will not be given to those who elect to first purchase individual units, except under special circumstances.
7. All sales dates are final. No extensions will be granted.
8. The Institute of Community Directors Australia have the right to repeal access at any time.